

If its world-class challenges you crave, we have a job for you. This exciting and varied role sits within the Group Policy & Compliance team at Fonterra. It will involve the ability to bring creative business solutions to develop and embed a compliance function within Fonterra, integrating this with Risk Management. You will help shape Fonterra's future compliance landscape.

Reporting to the Group Manager Policy & Compliance, the Analyst role works closely with management worldwide to identify compliance gaps and resolve business issues, as well as providing sound interpretation and advice on policy and compliance requirements.

To succeed in this role you will be tertiary qualified with an ability to solve business problems and have a demonstrated ability to deal with ambiguity. Enthusiastic, creative and flexible, you will be exposed to evolving processes and be expected to build innovative solutions. Naturally you will have excellent communication skills and are comfortable communicating and collaborating across all levels of the business.

Join a forward thinking, dynamic team and become a part of the leading global provider of innovative business solutions, delivering customer and shareholder value

In the first instance, please submit your CV to ankit.parikh@fonterra.com or call Ankit Parikh, Manager Policy & Compliance on 09 374 9059.